O R D E R:

Against the present impugned order, it is represented that the writ petitioner had already preferred an appeal. Since two parallel remedies cannot be pursued simultaneously, it is appropriate that the writ petitioner should pursue his appellate remedy.

In this set of facts, the appellate authority, Joint Collector, Krishna District is directed to dispose of the appeal preferred by the writ petitioner within a period of three (3) months. Till such time, the writ petitioner may be permitted to function as an interim dealer for supply of the essential commodities.

With this, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.

16.05.2007

Note: Issue operation portion of the order
by wire at party's costs.
